Taxes for $100

A tax that is based on one’s ability to pay.
What is a Progressive tax?
Taxes for $200

The Government’s largest source of income and largest area of spending.
What are individual income taxes and entitlements?
Taxes for $300

When the IRS reviews and checks a tax return more carefully than other tax returns. (Many people get VERY nervous when this happens)
Taxes for $300

What is an audit?
OASDI, Medicare, and unemployment insurance are examples of this?
What are social insurance taxes?
Taxes for $500

The yearly sum of goods and products in a country.
What is gross national product?
One company dominates an industry.
What is a monopoly?
Economics for $200

Private individuals own the factors of production and decide what to make based on demand.
Economics for $200

What is a Market Economy?
Economics for $300

Sports stadiums and other projects to make cities more attractive are examples of this – in other words to restore the city.
Economics for $300

What is urban renewal?
Economics for $400

Teddy Roosevelt busted these multiple corporations run as one enterprise.
Economics for $400

What are Trusts?
Economics for $500

October 1 to September 30
What is a fiscal year?
Diplomacy for $100

The official representative of the United States in foreign countries.
Diplomacy for $100

Who is an Ambassador?
Diplomacy for $200

An Ambassador and supporting diplomats are often not subject to the laws of the country in which they are posted.
Diplomacy for $200

Diplomatic immunity.

Has just been revoked!
Diplomacy for $300

Two of the 5 communist countries with whom we do NOT have diplomatic relations: China, Cuba, North Korea, Vietnam, Laos
Diplomacy for $300

Who are North Korea and Cuba?

C’mon! Where’s the love?
Diplomacy for $400

Allows nations to send and receive diplomatic representatives
Diplomacy for $400

What is the Right of Legation
Diplomacy for $500

The author of the Communist Manifesto predicted workers all over the world would unite and overthrow their oppressors.
Who is Karl Marx
Economic Systems for $100

Under this system the government own all factors of production
Economic Systems for $100

What is communism?
Economic Systems for $200

Controllable or uncontrollable spending. Mandatory spending for veterans’ benefits and Social Security payments are examples of this type of spending.
What is uncontrollable spending?
Economic Systems for $300

According to Marx, these workers are always exploited by these upper middle-class business owners.
Economic Systems for $300

Who are the proletariat and the bourgeoisie?
Economic Systems for $400

The three factors of production
Economic Systems for $400

What are land, labor, and capital?
In the first step in the budget process, each federal agency prepares a detailed estimate of its spending needs and then submits their estimate to this office.
What is the OMB – Office of Management and Budget?
Russia, China, UK, France, and the US all have veto power within this 15-member body.
Foreign Policy for $100

What is the UN Security Council?
True or False:
The Secretary of Defense must have military experience.
Foreign Policy for $200

What is false?
When the CIA was founded in 1947, it was specifically forbidden to do this.
Foreign Policy for $300

What is operate within the United States.
A major feature of American foreign policy since World War II is _______ - or to scare the heck out of other countries.
What is deterrence?
Foreign Policy for $500

The difference between the Department of State and Department of Defense.
Foreign Policy for $500

What is State conducts the nation’s foreign policy and maintains relations with other nations while Defense maintains the armed forces and carries out military objectives?
You have two cows and give one to your neighbor
Final Jeopardy Answer

What is Socialism?