Unit 2 Essay Questions

Why is a national census important to the House of Representatives?

Why are committees important in Congress?

How does the practice of legislative oversight demonstrate the constitutional principle of checks and balances?

What are the different actions the president may take when a bill is sent to the executive office, and what are the results of these actions?