RESEARCHING EGYPT!

For each article, answer the following questions:

Article 1:

Name, author and date of the article:

Where does the article take place?
How does this article examine historical Egypt?
What did you learn about ancient Egyptian civilization from this article?
What did you learn about modern Egypt from this article?
Was this article interesting to you? If so, why? If not, what information would have made it more interesting?

Article 2:

Name, author and date of the article:

Where does the article take place?
How does this article examine historical Egypt?
What did you learn about ancient Egyptian civilization from this article?
What did you learn about modern Egypt from this article?
Was this article interesting to you? If so, why? If not, what information would have made it more interesting?

Conclusion:

Which article presented more interesting historical information about Ancient Egypt? Why do you draw this conclusion?

Which article did you enjoy more – why?